LUTHERAN CHURCH

THE HERALD

Volume 121, Issue 3

Welcomed in Christ. Called to community. Sent to serve.

March 2021

A Note from the Pastor...

Immanuel: Connections and Gratitude

My nephews both play high school basketball for the Perham Yellowjackets. I've been lucky enough to watch almost all of their games on YouTube, but I realized that I haven't spent any meaningful time with my nephews. We've texted back and forth a bit, but it's not the same. While I am grateful that the local high schools have figured out how to make the games available, I am looking forward to reconnecting with them soon. I've felt this lack of connection in many relationships over the past year. It has been a difficult year, and I long for more connections with friends and family.

For the season of Lent, St. John is looking at how God is present with us (Immanuel) through connections with God and our gratitude for all God has done. This is a different theme than perhaps we've had in past years, but given the disconnects we may all be feeling in society, we felt this was an appropriate focus. In the midst of a year or more of "pandemic mode," claiming Immanuel, God with us, is even more important than ever. While there may be uncertainty about our ability to connect safely with others, Lent is a good time to remind ourselves of God's connection to us.

While I cannot necessarily control how much I connect with other people, I can remind myself daily of God's grace for my life. If I pass daily to read a devotion and take some time for prayer, I am reconnected with God in a meaningful way. I am also able to connect with others through phone calls, emails, etc. I know that this isn't the same, but it has helped. With my nephews, we have used zoom, phone and other ways to try to improve our connection with each other. My connection with God centers me on God's grace for the day and God's presence with me supports me as I live into an unknown future. I hope that you'll take the time to find the support that comes from God and use that to support others in your life.

Peace,

Pastor Erick

Reminders for St. John Groups

Please continue to socially distance even while masked.

Please contact the office with questions.

Music Notes

by Dawn Papenfuss

Living in the unknown....For those of us who like to plan and know what's going on ahead of time, this has been a difficult year. So much is still "unknown", and with Easter on the way, we have to think outside the box.

Choirs: We will put together at least 2-3 things for the week of Holy Week.

#1 Palm Sunday. We will send out another track for you to sing with. It will be "Shout, Sing Celebrate" and you may only have a week to get it done. This is for ALL KIDS AND YOUTH who have ever sung it as well as ADULT CHOIR. You will probably have access to this around mid-March.

#2 Easter Sunday. Adult Choir: We will put an anthem together although I do not know which one yet. You will have to sing to a piano track. The handbells and Suzanne and I are doing a Prelude piece recorded ahead of time. Hymns will probably be live (although if not, you will get the recording soonish). There is a benefit to taping ahead because then we can have brass and handbells. hmmm.

#3 Maundy Thursday and Good Friday: TBA. If we do lots of recordings, I will try to give them to you in one batch so you can do it at one sitting.

IN-PERSON WORSHIP SERVICES (Sundays at 9:30am and Wednesdays at 7:00pm) are open to anyone who would benefit from being there in person. Please sign up through the office ahead of time. Our capacity is 50 people, so if we have more than that sign up, we will have to come up with a rotation to accommodate everyone. office@stjohnfargo.com or call 701-232-8521 and leave a message. Obviously, masks required, etc. (see p. 2 for more info)

THANK YOU to Cindy Bloom for marking the pews for worship. We have some longer rows for families and shorter spots for singles or couples, etc. We appreciate your time, Cindy!

Thank you x100 to Jeremy Maahs, our Youth Programming Director, for all the work he has put in to get things recorded and online and now "live with some people in church and online". It blows my mind everything he has to know. He is looking for some people to help him, so please check out page 2 for more information.

Do you need a peaceful end to your day? One of the great blessings of Lutheran liturgy is the COMPLINE service. It is a wonderful way to focus on God in the evening or at bedtime. I asked Dave and Kim Adams from the NDSU Crossroads Ministry and the Concordia College Campus Ministry to RECORD the COMPLINE SERVICE for us. Please feel free to listen to this anytime! <https://fb.watch/3YTKi8FA5S/> If you prefer using the hymnal, it's on pg. 320 in the front of the ELW.

In addition to this, we are using TWO PARTS of the Compline service at our Lenten Wednesday night services as well as a couple of parts from the Marty Haugen Holden Evening Prayer service. Listening to this will certainly help you sing the liturgy on Wednesdays.

Lastly, TEN MINUTES before worship this Wednesday, March 3 (6:50pm) I will teach portions of the liturgy online/at worship as the "prelude" to Lenten Worship. Reminder: we can have up to 50 people in the sanctuary. Please join us!

Lenten Book Study

"Caste" by Isabel Wilkerson

As part of our year of learning about Welcoming the Other, we will read through the book, "Caste" by Isabel Wilkerson. In this book, Wilkerson suggests that American society reflects what many call a caste structure. During this study, we will explore her ideas about dominant caste and how the United States is not unique in stratifying its society this way. Through this study, we hope to learn more about ourselves and our neighbors so that we are better able to live out our mission statement: Welcomed in Christ. Called to community. Sent to serve.

Cross+Walk Sunday School has always had a focus on family faith formation, and this year we get to double down on family. Thanks to Zoom, we will still get to meet as one large group, for a short time of songs, stories, and a bit of silliness. But where this digital environment really shines is in Family Small Groups. You and your family will have a setting to sit together and open the Bible. We put together step-by-step guides to walk you through a simple Bible activity and to talk together about the promises of God for you and the world. And you’ll be paired up with another family or two for a comfortable and intimate group to walk through this together.

Blessings,

Preschool News

We have had a great February at preschool! Thanks to the generosity of parishioners, preschool families and supporters, we raised over $39,000 on Giving Hearts Day. We are currently full for fall 2021 and continue to take tours for a waiting list as there is such a need for quality early childhood education. During preschool, children have loved the Pet Vet in the drama room. We love seeing children use their imagination to be the veterinarians and perform x-rays and MRIs, be the receptionists who answer the phones and schedule appointments, and the groomers who wash the animals. We continue to appreciate our families for following Covid guidelines, mask regulations, and for making the sacrifices it takes to get their children to preschool each week.

The St. John Stephen Ministry team consists of 10 people. Currently they have 6 Care Givers available and all have Care Receivers. They met outside last spring and by phone this winter. Stephen Ministry is considering offering another training session for Stephen Ministers soon. Because some of you may have more time now in this pandemic, you may be interested in attending virtually. Let Pastor Brian (701-212-5214) or Sue Erickson (701-541-0847) know.

Loneliness is prevalent in these viral times exacerbated by other issues. Stephen Ministry can help.

What is Stephen Ministry again? Christ-Care to people who need it, request it and smile again during the process.

A dark-themed graphic for Stephen Ministry. On the right is a close-up of a woman's face, looking thoughtful with her hand to her chin. On the left, white text reads: "EXHAUSTED BY THE PANDEMIC? YOU DON'T HAVE TO FACE IT ALONE. A Stephen Minister can walk alongside you or a loved one to offer support and care—and it's free and confidential. To learn more, contact one of our Stephen Leaders." At the bottom right is a small icon of two figures walking.
