

ST. JOHN
LUTHERAN CHURCH

THE HERALD

Volume 121, Issue 5

Welcomed in Christ. Called to community. Sent to serve.

A Note from the Pastor...

As our response to the COVID-19 pandemic continues to improve our lives, we begin to think about how our new normal will look at church and in our communities. Adapting to our new realities might be difficult for some of us, but as Christians in some ways we've already been given new realities.

God has made us a new creation through the gift of the Holy Spirit in our baptism and through Christ's promise of presence in our lives. Our identity as Christians means that we are able to encounter the world in ways we may not have believed possible. I would even argue that we have not really considered what God's gift of grace does in our lives.

When we think about our "new normal," we might dwell on the changes that will happen, and how we will miss how things used to be. It is so easy to get caught up in complaining about what we've lost. In doing so, we will miss all of the gifts that God gives us, and miss an opportunity to enjoy the abundant life that God hopes for us. As God's "new creations" we can look at the world with the eyes of faith, and understand that while life is not what we expected, or maybe even hoped for, God is with us. When we see with the eyes of faith, our world looks different; not better or worse, but full of promise instead of out of control. As we live into our new normal, may God's rich blessings surround and uplift you in our ever-changing world.

Peace, Pastor Erick

Music Notes

by Dawn Papenfuss, Director of Music

Thank you to the choir members and instrumentalists who have been participating in worship on Wednesday evenings during this Easter season. We have been learning a new liturgy and teaching it at our online Wednesday service. We hope to use this in the near future. Thank you to Dave Adams, the Campus Co-Pastor with his wife, Kim, from Concordia/NDSU for teaching us the liturgy and preparing readings.

Wednesday worship in May: Everyone is invited to come to the worship services.

SPECIAL MUSIC. If you are interested in doing special music this summer, you can “perform” it in-person, or pre-tape it. I want to encourage people who want to be involved to let Dawn Papenfuss know. Preferably use my personal email: ldpapenfuss@gmail.com, but I will be on my church email at least 1-2 times a week.

Reminders for St. John Groups

While low Covid numbers in our community allow for some groups of a few people to meet in the church building, we encourage all groups at St. John to meet via Zoom unless this limits their ability to meet or do their work (such as handbells, quilters).

Please continue to socially distance even while masked.

Please contact the office with questions.

Volunteer Opportunities

Audio/Video Volunteers for Worship

We're looking to put together a "tech team" for worship. Whether you're a skilled audio/ video technician or have no experience at all, there is a place for you on the team.

Scripture Readers and Assisting Ministers

Each week, we have an opportunity for someone from the congregation to read scripture or pray the Prayers of the Church. You may choose to send in a pre-recorded video or come to the church to read in-person.

Ushers

Each week, we have opportunities for both adults and youth to serve as ushers. Ushers greet people as they enter the building and help people find seats, if necessary.

If interested, please call the office at 701-232-8521, email office@stjohnfargo.com, or sign up on Signup Genius.

Preschool News

Preschool has been home to an assortment of animals this spring. We hatched baby chicks. Preschoolers enjoyed watching the life cycle from eggs in an incubator to cute fuzzy chicks and the final days of them jumping out of the pen, signaling time to return to the farm. Caterpillars, ladybug larvae, and praying mantis pods joined our Russian tortoise, Tilly, and Geckomole, the gecko. Finding a warm day to release the butterflies posed a bit of a challenge. We anxiously await the hatching of the praying mantis egg case. Let us know if you are interested in hosting a preschool exchange pet for the summer. Tilly and Geckomole are looking for a summer placement. :)
